Reflection

Today, we celebrate the baptism of the lord. We recall that while Jesus was baptized with water by his cousin John the Baptizer, it is this model of baptism that all are called to be pure, repent from their sinful ways, and become like Jesus. After Jesus is baptized, he proceeds to the desert to pray and fast for 40 days and 40 nights. The baptism Jesus experiences is not the completion of his mission but a preparation for his journey in the wilderness. As we follow in the path of Jesus in being baptized into the family of God, let us reflect on these questions for the week to better prepare for the missions we are called to serve.

- How do I live out my baptism?
 - Do I take for granted that I have been baptized over others who are not?
 - Do I encourage others, especially children and adults, to see the beauty of this sacrament?
- Do I assist others on their journeys of faith?
 - Am I a challenge or an obstacle on their journey?
 - If so, will I repent and become more like Christ?
- How do I strive to live out my baptism in my parish?
 - Do I research and invest time in educating myself on the sacraments, especially baptism?
 - Do I take the time to reflect on the sacraments I have received and thank God for the graces accompanying them?

Something to consider about the sacrament of baptism is that it connects us to the community of the body of Christ. May we not take for granted the mystery of this sacrament, and may the graces and blessings it has bestowed on us continue to prepare us for the missions we currently serve and missions we are preparing to serve in our community.
