Reflection

On this feast of the holy family, we reflect on our Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph's love for Jesus. They did their best to raise Jesus, even when things did not go perfectly. The gospel tells us that Jesus went missing for three days while his parents were looking for him. Imagine the emotions going through Mary and Joseph's mind as they were searching for their son. Who could have taken Jesus? What terrible things could have been done to him without their protection? Will they ever see their son again? The experience of loss in the holy family can be reflected within our experiences as parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, and all members of families. It is the love we have for our families that connects us with the holy family. As we live our life this week, let us reflect on these questions and pray to the holy family to help us and our families:

- Have I been a good son or daughter to my parents? Or Was I a good son or daughter to my parents when they were physically here with me?
- How has the example of my parents affected my ability to be a parent to my children? Do I pray for my children?
- How do I see families out in the world?
 - Do I judge them based on my own prejudices, or do I look with the eyes of God's mercy and assess that they are doing their best?

May the Holy family pray for all of us as we continue to be lights in our families as we do our best to help families in need.
