Reflection

In 1906, a Special Holy Synod of our Church was convened, and one of its actions was to declare the Sunday after Christmas the Solemnity of the Humble Shepherds.

As the faithful of the Polish National Catholic Church, we annually celebrate the example of humble working people represented by the Bethlehem shepherds, the ones chosen by God in Luke's Gospel to hear the first announcement of Jesus's birth.

God had exalted these often shunned and discriminated individuals. God honored their honest and humble work as He sent His Son into the world in such an extraordinarily ordinary circumstance.

This Solemnity was meant to encourage the predominantly immigrant, working-class, and poor Church members of that day.

Those hard-working and under-appreciated first parishioners were spiritually strengthened to maintain the good fight for a democratic, people's Catholic church by remembering the example of the Humble Shepherds. They fully understood the humble shepherds who, when prompted by God, went to meet the newborn savior: "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." Then, having seen the fulfillment, they acted and made the good news known: And when they saw it, they made known the saying which had been told them concerning this child.

This Solemnity reminds us to maintain our focus. We must listen to God's word and then we must act. We must continue to fight against meaningless parades of pomp for the sake of glorifying clergy in carrying out our faith life. Ours is a humble Church, built by the humble and led by humble shepherds who love Jesus and their people. This is a model of Christian faith, practiced in the Polish National Catholic Church (PNCC) for over 100 years, which other Churches are beginning to find.

On this Solemnity, we also particularly remember and pray for our shepherds- the priests and bishops who lead us with love and humility. They listened to the prompting of God and acted, standing before us to make God's Word known so that we might act. Let us ask God to bless our clergy and to call forth to Sacred Vocations those called by Christ to be the humble shepherds of our congregations. May they hear, listen, and act.
